

First national events in Greece

1. On Friday, 8th of May 2015 in the 3rd Gymnasium of Aigaleo, Aigaleo is a west suburb of Athens, the environmental team of the school presented its project: «Actions for the restriction of human intervention in the phenomenon of greenhouse and the climatic change».

In cooperation with OCEAN NGO presented the GREEN network and we distributed our brochures, related with the climate change. In the event were attended 170 students, 20 teachers, the headmaster of the school and the responsible of the environmental education of west Athens.

2. On Monday, 12th of May 2015 in the 3rd Lyceum of Aigaleo, an environmental and cultural festival took place with the participation of many schools (over 20), students, teachers, headmasters and the responsible persons of the environmental education and the cultural education of 3d secondary Directorate of Athens.

There, also was presented the GREEN network and were distributed our brochures.

